SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS

and

the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists are pleased to offer:

PERSONALITY TESTING

The workshop will present an overview of personality testing - advantages and disadvantages, self-report and projective. There will be discussions about the BASC-3, the BRIEF-2, and the Rorschach. Student's cognitive functioning and learning styles will be presented along with case examples.

Ann J. Gluck, Psy.D. is a clinical and school psychologist in private practice, who for the last 24 years has specialized in psychoeducational assessment of children, adolescents, and adults, as well as school consultation. She received her M.S.Ed. in early childhood special education in 1979 and her Psy.D. from Hahnemann University in 1988. She received her school psychology training through a joint program with Bryn Mawr College, and after graduating, she worked for many years at Child Study Institute at Bryn Mawr College.

FEES:

This workshop is free for members of SOS, PSCP, and staff at the host school. There is a $15.00 admission fee for others. CE credits and Act 48 credits are $20.00 each. Payment must be made online, by check, or money order made out to SOS. NO CASH PLEASE.

TO REGISTER: please go to the website (www.specialistsofschools.org), click on the upcoming workshop, answer the questions, click the "Reserve Your Spot by Registering Online" button, then click the PayPal button to pay in advance. This is strongly recommended, as it will decrease waiting time and confusion at the registration table.

CE CREDITS:

This session is co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists (PSCP) and Specialists of Schools. PSCP is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. PSCP maintains responsibility for the program and its content. This program provides 2 hours of CE credits for Licensed Psychologists or Certified School Psychologists.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- list the similarities and differences between self-report versus projective tests
- discuss the relative advantages and disadvantages of self-report versus projective tests
- explain three ways in which the results of self-report and/or projective tests can add to an understanding of a student's cognitive functioning and/or learning style

DIRECTIONS: Enter the campus through the main entrance, take your first right (in front of the tennis courts), then make your first left and park anywhere in the parking lot. When entering the main building you will need to show photo ID at the security desk.
