Time: 12:30 P.M. to 2:30 P.M. Program

*Please bring a bag lunch. Dessert and beverages will be supplied***

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- apply greater awareness and sensitivity toward transgender and gender diversity issues including both challenges and celebrations
- define vocabulary and terminology related to transgender and gender diversity issues
- identify tools to use in building comfort and safety for transgender and gender variant students
- explain issues that arise with regard to transgender and gender diversity

OUR PRESENTERS

Dr. Tamara Kanter received her Ph.D. in Human Sexuality Education from the University of Pennsylvania and has worked in the field of counseling, specializing in sexuality, for almost 20 years. She operates a private practice and sexuality center in Bucks County where she offers individual, family, couples and group work. She has, over the years, developed and taught a variety of sexuality and counseling courses, conducted forensic evaluations and run educational workshops.

Marlene Pray, a Ph.D. candidate at Widener University, is a social justice, sexuality activist, who has been involved in defending LGBT rights. She opened the Rainbow Room in Bucks County, a center for LGBT youth, where she remains as advisor and guest educator. As an elected member of the Doylestown Borough Council, she has advocated for anti-discrimination ordinances.
