

SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS
and
PSCP: The Psychology Network are pleased to offer:
ETHICAL PRACTICE WITH DIVERSE CLIENTS

These are challenging times. The COVID-19 pandemic, racial tensions, climate change, and political turmoil affect psychologists and our clients. Knowing how to work successfully with clients who have diverse opinions as well as clients who represent ethnic, racial, cultural, and gender diverse identities is essential. This workshop will focus on the ethical principles of autonomy, beneficence, nonmaleficence, fidelity, and justice to provide a framework for responding to difficult situations. This workshop will also involve the participants in the application of ethical decision making and participants are invited to discuss their own ethical dilemmas.

Linda K. Knauss, Ph.D., ABPP is a Professor at Widener University's Institute for Graduate Clinical Psychology. Dr. Knauss is the Past-chair of the American Psychological Association's Ethics Committee, the American Board of Professional Psychology's Ethics Committee, the Pennsylvania Psychological Association's Ethics Committee, and has served as Co-chair of the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists' Ethics Committee. Dr. Knauss taught courses in ethics at Widener University, Immaculata University, and the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. She has authored several book chapters and journal articles on ethics, and has taught many continuing education workshops on a variety of ethical issues.

Date: Friday, October 15, 2021
